a report on the management by the Bank of Russia of securities and stakes in the capital of organisations owned by the Bank of Russia;

a report on expenses for the maintenance of Bank of Russia employees;

a report on the execution of the capital budget;

a report on the volume of transactions conducted by the Bank of Russia in trades organised by the stock exchanges and (or) other organisers of trade on the securities market.

(this paragraph is introduced by Federal Law No. 176-FZ, dated October 27, 2008)

The State Duma shall submit the Bank of Russia Annual Report to the Russian Federation President and also to the Russian Federation Government for appraisal.

The State Duma shall consider the Bank of Russia Annual Report before July 1 of the year following the reporting year and adopt a decision on it.

The Bank of Russia Annual Report shall be published no later than July 15 of the year following the reporting year.

The Bank of Russia shall publish on a monthly basis its balance sheet, currency circulation data, including money supply dynamics and structure, and generalised data on Bank of Russia operations.

Article 26. After the approval of Bank of Russia annual financial statements by the Board of Directors, the Bank of Russia shall transfer to the federal budget 50 per cent of its full-year profit left after the payment of taxes and duties as is required by the Tax Code of the Russian Federation. The remaining profit of the Bank of Russia shall be transferred by the Board of Directors to reserves and various funds.

Federal Law No. 245-FZ, dated September 30, 2010, shall suspend until January 1, 2014, Part 1 of Article 26 in relation to the percentage of actual annual profit transferred to the federal budget by the Bank of Russia after the payment of taxes and duties pursuant to the Tax Code of the Russian Federation.

It is enacted that 75% of profit actually received by the Bank of Russia in 2010, 2011 and 2012 and remaining after the payment of taxes and duties pursuant to the Tax Code of the Russian Federation shall be transferred by the Bank of Russia to the federal budget after approval of its annual financial statements by the Board of Directors.

Federal Law No. 218-FZ, dated September 22, 2009, shall suspend until January 1, 2013, Part 1 of Article 26 in relation to the percentage of actual annual profit transferred to the federal budget by the Bank of Russia after the payment of taxes and duties pursuant to the Tax Code of the Russian Federation.

It is enacted that 75% of profit actually received by the Bank of Russia in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and remaining after the payment of taxes and duties pursuant to the Tax Code of the Russian Federation shall be transferred by the Bank of Russia to the federal budget after approval of its annual financial statements by the Board of Directors.

(Due to the publication of Federal Law No. 245-FZ, dated September 30, 2010, Federal Law No. 218-FZ, dated September 22, 2009, shall be null and void in relation to the suspension of Part 1 of Article 26).

Taxes and duties shall be paid by the Bank of Russia and its organisations in line with the Tax Code of the Russian Federation.

Article 26.1. The Bank of Russia shall disclose information about the transactions it conducts in trades organised by the stock exchanges and (or) other organisers of trade on the securities market and the content of this information and the procedure and times for disclosing it shall be established by the Board of Directors.

(article is introduced by Federal Law No. 176-FZ, dated October 27, 2008)

Chapter VI. Cash Management

Article 27. The ruble shall be the official monetary unit (currency) of the Russian Federation. It shall be equal to 100 kopecks.

The issue of any other monetary units or quasi-money shall be prohibited in the Russian Federation.

Article 28. No official ratio shall be set between the ruble and gold or other precious metals.

Article 29. The issue of cash (banknotes and coins), organisation of its circulation and its withdrawal from circulation in the Russian Federation shall be effected exclusively by the Bank of Russia.

Bank of Russia banknotes (bank bills) and coins shall be the sole legal tender in the Russian Federation. Their forgery or illegal manufacture shall be prosecuted under the law.

Article 30. Bank of Russia banknotes and coins shall be unconditional obligations of the Bank of Russia, secured by all its assets.

Bank of Russia banknotes and coins shall be unconditionally accepted for their face value in effecting all kinds of payments, crediting accounts and making deposits and transfers on the entire territory of the Russian Federation.

Article 31. Bank of Russia banknotes and coins may not be declared invalid (no longer legal tender) without establishing a sufficiently long period of their exchange for new Bank of Russia banknotes and coins. No restrictions shall be imposed on the sum or subject of the exchange.

When old Bank of Russia banknotes and coins are exchanged for new Bank of Russia banknotes and coins, the period of the withdrawal of banknotes and coins from circulation may not be shorter than one year but no longer than five years.

Article 32. The Bank of Russia shall exchange worn or damaged banknotes without any restrictions in compliance with its rules.

Article 33. The Board of Directors shall take the decision to issue new Bank of Russia banknotes and coins and withdraw old Bank of Russia banknotes and coins from circulation and approve the denominations and specimens of new currency. The description of new banknotes and coins shall be published in the media.

The State Duma and the Russian Federation Government shall be notified of such a decision in advance.

Article 34. To organise the circulation of currency in the Russian Federation, the Bank of Russia shall fulfil the following functions:

it shall forecast and organise the production, including the placement of order for production of Bank of Russia banknotes and coins with the respective organisation, transportation and storage of Bank of Russia banknotes and coins and create their reserves;

(in the wording of Federal Law No. 10-FZ, dated February 7, 2011)

it shall set the cash storage, transportation and collection rules for credit institutions;

it shall establish the criteria of validity of Bank of Russia banknotes and coins and the procedure for destroying Bank of Russia banknotes and coins and replacing damaged Bank of Russia banknotes and coins;

it shall establish the procedure for conducting cash operations.

Chapter VII. Monetary Policy

Article 35. The principal tools and methods of the Bank of Russia monetary policy shall be as follows:

- 1) interest rates on Bank of Russia operations;
- 2) ratios of required reserves deposited with the Bank of Russia (reserve requirements);
- 3) open-market operations;
- 4) refinancing credit institutions;
- 5) currency interventions;
- 6) setting targets for money supply growth;
- 7) direct quantitative restrictions;
- 8) the issue of bonds on its own behalf.

Article 36. The Bank of Russia shall regulate the total amount of the loans it extends in line with the approved targets for the single state monetary policy.

Article 37. The Bank of Russia may set one or several interest rates on different kinds of operations or pursue an interest rate policy without fixing an interest rate.

The Bank of Russia shall use the interest rate policy to influence market interest rates.

Article 38. The amount of the required reserves as a percentage of a credit institution's obligations (required reserve ratio) and the procedure for depositing the required reserves with the Bank of Russia shall be established by the Board of Directors.

The required reserve ratios may not exceed 20 per cent of a credit institution's obligations and may be different for various credit institutions.

The required reserve ratios may not be changed by more than five points at a time.

Should a credit institution violate a required reserve ratio, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to incontestably write down the amount underpaid from the credit institution's account in the Bank of Russia and charge the credit institution a penalty by legal procedure in the amount established by the Bank of Russia. This penalty may not exceed a sum calculated on the basis of the Bank of Russia refinancing rate effective on the day of the court ruling, multiplied by two.

No penalty shall be imposed on the required reserves deposited by a credit institution with the Bank of Russia.

After the revocation of a credit institution's banking licence, the required reserves deposited by the credit institution with the Bank of Russia shall be transferred to the account of the liquidation commission (liquidator) or receiver and used in accordance with the procedure established by federal laws and Bank of Russia normative acts issued in pursuance of these laws.

When a credit institution is reorganised, the procedure for the conversion of its required reserves that were previously deposited with the Bank of Russia shall be established pursuant to Bank of Russia normative acts.

Article 39. The Bank of Russia open market operations shall signify:

1) the purchase and sale of Treasury bills, government bonds, other government securities, Bank of Russia bonds, as well as the conclusion of repo agreements with these securities;

2) purchase and sale of other securities specified by the Board of directors, provided that they are listed for trades arranged by stock exchanges and/or other organisers of trade on the securities market, as well as the conclusion of repo agreements with these securities.

When conducting operations with shares on the open market, the Bank of Russia may only conclude repo agreements and sell shares if a counterparty defaults on repo obligations.

(article is in the wording of Federal Law No. 281-FZ, dated November 25, 2009)

Article 40. Refinancing shall signify the extension of Bank of Russia loans to credit institutions.

The form, procedure and terms and conditions of refinancing shall be established by the Bank of Russia.

Article 41. Bank of Russia currency interventions shall signify the purchase and sale by the Bank of Russia of foreign exchange on the currency market with the aim of regulating the ruble rate and the overall demand for money and money supply.

Article 42. The Bank of Russia may set growth targets for one or several money supply indicators, taking into account the guidelines for the single state monetary policy.

Article 43. Direct quantitative restrictions set by the Bank of Russia shall signify setting limits on the refinancing of credit institutions and the conduct of some banking operations by credit institutions.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to apply direct quantitative restrictions to all credit institutions equally in exceptional cases with the aim of implementing the single state monetary policy only after consultations with the Russian Federation Government.

Article 44. To implement the monetary policy, the Bank of Russia may issue bonds in its own name to be placed and traded among credit institutions.

The maximum total nominal value of Bank of Russia bonds of all issues, unredeemed by the date the Board of Directors takes the decision to issue (launch an additional issue of) Bank of Russia bonds, shall be established as the difference between the largest possible sum of the required reserves of credit institutions and the sum of the required reserves of credit institutions, established on the basis of the current required reserve ratio.

(in the wording of Federal Law No. 61-FZ, dated June 18, 2005)

Article 45. The Bank of Russia shall annually submit to the State Duma draft guidelines for the single state monetary policy for the coming year no later than the deadline for submission to the State Duma of a draft federal budget law for the next fiscal year and the planned period by the Russian Federation Government and guidelines for the single state monetary policy for the coming year no later than December 1.

Before that, draft guidelines for the single state monetary policy shall be submitted to the Russian Federation President and Russian Federation Government.

Guidelines for the single state monetary policy for the coming year shall comprise:

the main principles of the monetary policy pursued by the Bank of Russia;

a brief description of the state of the Russian economy;

a forecast for the expected fulfilment of the main parameters of the monetary policy in the current year;

a quantitative analysis of why the monetary policy targets set by the Bank of Russia for the current year were missed, an evaluation of the prospects for these targets being attained and an explanation of how they can be corrected;

a scenario forecast (in at least two versions) for the development of the Russian economy in the coming year with a projection of the price of oil and other Russian export commodities in each scenario;

a forecast for the main indicators of Russia's balance of payments for the coming year;

targets characterising the main objectives of the monetary policy, proclaimed by the Bank of Russia for the coming year, including interval indicators for inflation, the monetary base, money supply, interest rates and changes in international reserves;

main indicators for the monetary programme for the coming year;

alternative uses of the monetary policy tools and methods guaranteeing the attainment of the targets in various scenarios of economic development;

Bank of Russia plan of actions for the coming year, aimed at upgrading the Russian banking system, banking supervision, financial markets and the payment system.

The State Duma shall consider the guidelines for the single state monetary policy for the coming year and adopt a corresponding decision before it has passed the federal budget law for the coming year.

Chapter VIII. Bank of Russia Banking Operations and Transactions

Article 46. The Bank of Russia shall have the right to conduct the following banking operations and transactions with Russian and foreign credit institutions and the Russian Federation Government in order to attain the goals set in this Federal Law:

1) to extend loans for a term up to 1 year against securities and other assets unless the federal budget law stipulates otherwise;

1.1) to extend unsecured loans for a term no longer than twelve months to Russian credit institutions that are rated not below the eligible level. The list of the rating agencies whose ratings are used to determine the creditworthiness of the borrowers, the necessary minimum ratings, additional requirements for the borrowers and the procedure for extending the corresponding loans and their terms and conditions shall be drawn up by the Board of Directors;

(point 1.1 was introduced by Federal Law No. 171-FZ, dated October 13, 2008, in the wording of Federal Law No. 317-FZ, dated December 30, 2008)

2) to buy and sell securities on the open market and also sell securities accepted as collateral for Bank of Russia loans;

(point 2 is in the wording of Federal Law No. 176-FZ, dated October 27, 2008)

3) to buy and sell bonds issued by the Bank of Russia and certificates of deposits;

4) to buy and sell foreign exchange and payment documents and obligations denominated in foreign currency, offered by Russian and foreign credit organisations;

5) to buy, keep and sell precious metals and other currency values;

6) to conduct settlement, cash and deposit operations and accept securities and other assets for safe keeping and management;

7) to issue warranties and bank guarantees;

8) to conduct operations with financial instruments used in managing financial risks;

9) to open accounts in Russian and foreign credit institutions in the Russian Federation and in foreign states;

10) to draw cheques and bills in any currency;

11) to conduct other banking operations and transactions in its own name in compliance with international banking business practices.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to conduct banking operations and transactions for commission, except for the cases stipulated by federal laws.

The Bank of Russia shall also be entitled to conduct banking operations and other transactions with international organisations, foreign central (national) banks and other foreign legal entities in the course of managing Bank of Russia assets in foreign currency and precious metals including Bank of Russia international reserves.

(part 3 was introduced by Federal Law No. 291-FZ, dated November 3, 2010)

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to pass to Russian and foreign credit institutions, as well as the organisation engaged in the production of Bank of Russia banknotes and coins, Bank of Russia banknotes in souvenir wrapping and coins at prices set by the Bank of Russia, which differ from their nominal value.

(part 4 was introduced by Federal Law No. 10-FZ, dated February 7, 2011)

Article 47. Security for Bank of Russia loans can be as follows:

gold and other precious metals in standard and measuring bullions;

foreign currency;

bills denominated in the Russian or foreign currency;

government securities.

Lists of bills and government securities eligible as security for Bank of Russia loans shall be drawn up in accordance with the decision of the Board of Directors.

In the cases established by the decision of the Board of Directors, other valuables and also warranties and bank guarantees may be used as security for Bank of Russia loans.

Article 48. The Bank of Russia can conduct banking operations to service the bodies of state power and local self-government, their organisations, government extra-budgetary funds, army units, servicemen, Bank of Russia employees and other persons in those cases stipulated by federal laws.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to provide services to clients other than credit institutions in regions where there are no credit institutions.

Article 49. The Bank of Russia shall have no right to:

1) conduct banking operations with legal entities that have no banking licence and private individuals, except for the cases stipulated by Part 3 of Article 46 and Article 48 of this Federal Law;

(point 1 is in the wording of Federal Law No. 291-FZ, dated November 3, 2010)

2) to acquire shares (stakes) of credit institutions and other organisations, except for the cases stipulated by Articles 8, 9 and 39 of this Federal Law;

(point 2 is in the wording of Federal Law No. 176-FZ, dated October 27, 2008)

3) conduct operations with real estate, except for the cases connected with the provision of support for the activities of the Bank of Russia and its organisations;

4) engage in trade and production, except for the cases stipulated by this Federal Law;

5) prolong the loans it extended. An exception may be made should the Board of Directors decide to do so.

Article 50. The Bank of Russia shall be liable in accordance with the procedure established by federal laws.

The interests of the Bank of Russia may be represented in a court of law or arbitration court by the heads of its regional branches and other Bank of Russia executives who have the corresponding power of attorney in accordance with the established procedure.

Chapter IX. International and Foreign Economic Activities of the Bank of Russia

Article 51. The Bank of Russia shall represent the interests of the Russian Federation in relations with the central banks of foreign states and in international banks and other international monetary and financial organisations.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to request the central bank or banking supervision authority of a foreign state to provide it with information or documents received from credit institutions while fulfilling supervisory functions and it shall be entitled to provide the banking supervision authority of a foreign state with such information or documents that do not contain data on operations conducted by credit institutions and their clients, provided that the banking supervision authority in question will guarantee the confidentiality of the information, thereby complying with the confidentiality of information requirements made to the Bank of Russia by Russian Federation legislation. As regards the information and documents received from the central banks and banking supervision authorities of foreign states, the Bank of Russia must comply with the requirements for the disclosure of information and the provision of documents made by Russian Federation legislation, taking into consideration the requirements made by the legislation of the foreign states.

Article 52. The Bank of Russia shall issue permits for the establishment of credit institutions with foreign investments and branches of foreign banks and accredit representative offices of credit institutions of foreign states in the Russian Federation in accordance with the procedure established by federal laws.

An increase in the authorised capital of a credit institution at non-residents' expense shall be regulated by federal laws.

Article 53. The Bank of Russia shall set and publish the official rates of foreign currency against the ruble.

Article 54. The Bank of Russia shall be the body of foreign exchange regulation and foreign exchange control and it shall fulfil these functions in compliance with Federal Law No. 173-FZ, dated December 10, 2003, "On Foreign Exchange Regulation and Foreign Exchange Control," and other federal laws.

(in the wording of Federal Law No.90-FZ, dated July 18, 2005)

Article 55. To fulfil its functions, the Bank of Russia may open representative offices in foreign states.

Chapter X. Banking Regulation and Banking Supervision

Article 56. The Bank of Russia shall be the body of banking regulation and banking supervision. The Bank of Russia shall conduct constant supervision over the observance by credit institutions and banking groups of banking legislation, Bank of Russia normative acts and the compulsory standards set by the Bank of Russia.

The principal objectives of banking regulation and banking supervision shall be to maintain the stability of the Russian banking system and protect the interests of depositors and creditors. The Bank of Russia shall not interfere in the day-to-day activities of credit institutions, except for those cases stipulated by federal laws.

The regulating and supervising functions of the Bank of Russia, established by this Federal Law, shall be implemented through the Banking Supervision Committee, a permanent body uniting the Bank of Russia units responsible for supervision.

The Regulation on the Banking Supervision Committee and its structure shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

(part four in the wording of Federal Law No. 276-FZ, dated December 25, 2008)

The head of the Banking Supervision Committee shall be appointed by the Bank of Russia Chairman from among the members of the Board of Directors.

Article 57. The Bank of Russia shall set the rules, binding for credit institutions and banking groups, for conducting banking operations, accounting and reporting, internal control management and compiling and presenting accounting, statistical and other data required by federal laws. The rules set by the Bank of Russia shall apply to the accounting and statistical reports compiled for the period starting no sooner than the date on which these rules are published.

To fulfil its functions, the Bank of Russia, acting in compliance with a list drawn up by the Board of Directors, shall have the right to request and receive from credit institutions the necessary information on their activities and demand elucidation of the information received.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to establish for the members of a banking group the procedure for providing information on their activities, necessary for compiling consolidated reports.

To compile banking and monetary statistics, the balance of payments and financial account of the Russian Federation in the system of national accounts, as well as analyse the economic situation, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to request and receive free of charge the necessary information from the federal bodies of executive power and their regional branches and legal entities.

(in the wording of Federal Law No. 285-FZ, dated October 19, 2011)

Information on specific operations, received from legal entities, shall not be disclosed without the consent of the corresponding legal entity, except for those cases stipulated by federal laws.

The Bank of Russia shall publish summary statistical and analytical data on the Russian banking system.

The provisions of this Article shall apply to information collected by the Bank of Russia and passed by it to international organisations at the instruction of the Russian Federation Government.

Article 58. The Bank of Russia shall not be entitled to require credit institutions to fulfil any functions incompatible with their status or require them to provide information on their clients or third persons that is not envisaged by federal laws and not connected with the provision of banking services to these persons.

The Bank of Russia shall not be entitled to set directly or indirectly any restrictions on operations with clients of credit institutions that are not stipulated by federal laws or require credit institutions to demand from their clients any documents that are not stipulated by federal laws.

Article 59. The Bank of Russia shall make decisions on the state registration of credit institutions and, to fulfil its controlling and supervising functions, it shall keep the State Register of Credit Institutions, issue banking licences to credit institutions and suspend and revoke such licences.

Article 60. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to establish in compliance with federal laws qualification requirements for candidates for the position of members of a board of directors (supervisory board), a one-man executive body and his deputies, members of a collegiate executive body and chief accountant and deputy chief accountants of a credit institution and also candidates for the position of the head, deputy heads, chief accountant and deputy chief accountants of a credit institution's branch.

Article 61. The acquisition and (or) receipt for trust management (hereinafter referred to as acquisition) as a result of one or several transactions by a legal entity or private individual or by a group of legal entities and (or) private individuals, connected with one another by an agreement, or a group of legal entities that are subsidiary to or dependent on one another, of more than 1 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution shall require that the Bank of Russia be notified, and more than 20 per cent the latter's prior consent.

No later than 30 days after the receipt of an application for Bank of Russia consent for the acquisition of more than 20 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution, the Bank of Russia shall notify the applicant in writing about its decision—consent or refusal. An explanation shall be given for a refusal. Should the Bank of Russia fail to make known its decision within the aforementioned period, the transaction (transactions) shall be considered permitted.

A notification about the acquisition of more than 1 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution shall be sent to the Bank of Russia no later than 30 days after the acquisition date. The procedure for receiving the prior consent of the Bank of Russia for the acquisition of more than 20 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution and the procedure for notifying the Bank of Russia about the acquisition of more than 1 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution shall be established by federal laws and Bank of Russia normative acts issued in pursuance of these laws.

As part of fulfilling its supervisory functions, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to request and receive information on the financial standing and business reputation of the members (shareholders) of a credit institution if they have acquired more than 20 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution and impose requirements for the financial standing of the acquirer of more than 20 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution.

The Bank of Russia shall have the right to withhold its consent for the acquisition of more than 20 per cent of shares (stakes) of a credit institution if the financial standing of their acquirer is found unsatisfactory and in other cases stipulated by federal laws.

The acquisition of shares (stakes) of a credit institution at non-residents' expense shall be regulated by federal laws.

Article 62. To ensure stability of credit institutions, the Bank of Russia can establish the following compulsory standards:

- 1) a minimum amount of authorised capital for new credit institutions, a certain amount of own funds (capital) for operating credit institutions as a condition for opening their subsidiaries in a foreign state and (or) opening their branches, obtaining by a non-bank credit institution of the status of a bank and obtaining by a credit institution of the status of a subsidiary of a foreign bank;

2) a limit on the value of property (non-monetary assets) contributed to the authorised capital of a credit institution;

3) maximum risk per borrower or a group of related borrowers;

4) maximum high credit risk;

5) liquidity ratios for a credit institution;

6) own capital adequacy ratios;

7) currency, interest and other financial risks;

8) a minimum amount of provisions for risks;

9) ratios for the use of own funds (capital) of a credit institution for the purchase of shares (stakes) of other legal entities;

10) a maximum amount of loans, bank guarantees and warranties granted by a credit institution (banking group) to its members (shareholders).

The compulsory standards indicated in paragraph 1 of this Article can be set by the Bank of Russia for banking groups.

Article 62.1. The Bank of Russia shall set the following required ratios for non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations stipulated in point 1, part 3 of Article 1 of the Federal Law on Banks and Banking Activities:

1) the equity (capital) adequacy ratio defined as the ratio between the value of equity (capital) and the value of liabilities to customers as of the latest quarterly reporting date. The equity (capital) adequacy ratio shall be set at the level of 2%;

2) the liquidity ratio defined as the ratio between the value of liquid assets with maturities in the next 30 calendar days and the value of liabilities to customers as of the latest quarterly reporting date. The liquidity ratio shall be set at the level of 100%.

Non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations shall be obliged to manage their operational risks and ensure uninterrupted money transfers in compliance with the requirements set by Bank of Russia regulations.

Non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations shall be required to submit reports to the Bank of Russia quarterly, if the average value of their liabilities to customers accumulated over the period of six months to make money transfers without opening bank accounts exceeds 2 billion rubles during a month.

Non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations shall submit reports to the Bank of Russia once every six months, if the average value of their liabilities to customers accumulated over the period of six months to make money transfers without opening bank accounts does not exceed 2 billion rubles during a month.

The procedure and forms of reporting by non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations shall be set by Bank of Russia regulations.

Non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations shall have the right to place funds provided by their customers for money transfers without opening bank accounts exclusively:

- 1) in a correspondent account with the Bank of Russia;
- 2) in deposit accounts with the Bank of Russia;
- 3) in correspondent accounts with credit institutions.

Non-bank credit institutions empowered to make money transfers without opening bank accounts and conduct other related banking operations shall be required to disclose to the public information on the persons who exert material influence directly or indirectly on decisions taken by their management, in accordance with the procedure set by the Bank of Russia for banks registered in the system of insurance of household deposits with Russian banks.

(Article 62.1 was introduced by Federal Law No. 162-FZ, dated June 27, 2011).

Article 63. This Article has been null and void since January 1, 2007, in accordance with Federal Law No. 60-FZ, dated May 3, 2006.

Article 64. Maximum risk per borrower or a group of related borrowers dependent on one another or being parent and subsidiary shall be established as percentages of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group) and may not exceed 25 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

In establishing maximum risk, the entire amount of loans extended by a credit institution to a borrower or a group of related borrowers and the sums of guarantees and warranties granted by a credit institution to a borrower or a group of related borrowers shall be taken into account.

Article 65. Maximum high credit risk shall be established as a percentage ratio of the total amount of high credit risks to the amount of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

A high credit risk shall be the sum of loans, guarantees and warranties granted to one client exceeding 5 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

The maximum amount of high credit risks shall not exceed 800 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to keep a register of high credit risks of credit institutions (banking groups).

Article 66. The liquidity ratios of a credit institution shall be determined as follows:

the ratio between its assets and liabilities, taking into account the terms, amounts and kinds of assets and liabilities and other factors;

the ratio between its liquid assets (cash, termless banking claims, short-term securities and other saleable assets) and aggregate assets.

Article 67. The own funds (capital) adequacy ratios shall be determined as the ratio between the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group) and its risk-weighted aggregate assets.

Article 68. The Bank of Russia shall regulate the size of and accounting procedure for the open position of credit institutions (banking groups) on currency, interest and other financial risks.

Article 69. The Bank of Russia shall establish the procedure for creating and the size of pre-tax reserves (funds) of credit institutions to cover possible loan losses and currency, interest rate and other financial risks in compliance with federal laws.

(in the wording of Federal Law No. 180-FZ, dated December 23, 2003)

Article 70. The ratios for the use of own funds (capital) of a credit institution for the purchase of shares (stakes) of other legal entities shall be determined as a percentage ratio of the sum invested to the sum of own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

The ratio for the use of own funds (capital) of a credit institution for the purchase of shares (stakes) of other legal entities may not exceed 25 per cent of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

Article 71. The maximum amount of loans, bank guarantees and warranties granted by a credit institution (banking group) to its members (shareholders) shall be determined as percentages of the own funds (capital) of a credit institution (banking group).

This ratio may not exceed 50 per cent.

Article 72. The Bank of Russia shall establish the methods for calculating own funds (capital) of a credit institution, assets, liabilities and risk for each ratio, taking into account international standards and consultations with credit institutions and banking associations and unions.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to establish different ratios and methods for calculating them for various credit institutions.

The Bank of Russia shall officially announce any forthcoming change in ratios and methods for calculating them no later than one month before introducing them.

To calculate the own funds (capital) of a credit institution, the Bank of Russia shall evaluate its assets and liabilities, using the evaluation methods established by Bank of Russia normative acts. A credit institution must indicate the amount of its own funds (capital), established by the Bank of Russia, in its accounting and other records.

Should the amount of own funds (capital) of a credit institution prove smaller than its authorised capital, indicated in its founding documents, the Bank of Russia shall demand that this credit institution match its own funds (capital) with its authorised capital. The credit institution shall comply with the Bank of Russia prescription in accordance with the procedure, within the terms and on the conditions established by the Federal Law on Insolvency (Bankruptcy) of Credit Institutions.

The Bank of Russia shall establish the conditions for including subordinated credit (deposits, loans and bond issues) into the sources of own funds (capital) of a credit institution and the conditions for excluding subordinated credit (deposits, loans and bond issues) from the sources of own funds (capital) of a credit institution. The sum of subordinated credit (deposit, loan or bond issue) may be excluded from the calculation of own funds (capital) of a credit institution after prior agreement with the Bank of Russia reached according to the procedure established by the Bank of Russia regulation, if the subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement is terminated before the expiry of its term or if bonds are redeemed ahead of schedule on the initiative of the borrower credit institution.

Part 6 was introduced by Federal Law No. 247-FZ, dated December 29, 2006.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to suspend payment of the principal amount of the debt and (or) interest under a subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement or bonds according to the procedure set by the Bank of Russia regulations if the suspension of payments is provided for by the subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement or the registered terms of bond issue and the effectuation of scheduled payments to creditors creates the grounds for implementing bankruptcy-prevention measures stipulated by the Federal Law on Insolvency (Bankruptcy) of Credit Institutions. At the same time, the Bank of Russia shall prohibit credit institutions from taking decisions on the allocation of profit between their founders (members) and the payment (announcement) of dividends to them and from allocating profits between their founders (members), paying them dividends and meeting the demands by the founders (members) of credit institutions for allocating a share (a part of a share) to them or paying its actual value or buying out shares in credit institutions. The suspension of payments under the subordinated credit (deposit or loan) agreement or on bonds and the prohibition for a credit institution to take decisions on the allocation of profit between its founders (members) and the payment (announcement) of dividends to them and from allocating profits between its founders (members), paying them dividends and meeting the demand by the founders (members) of the credit institution for allocating a share (a part of a share) to them or paying its actual value or buying out shares in the credit institution shall be cancelled at the request of the credit institution, made according to the procedure established by the Bank of Russia, if the real threat of the emergence of the grounds for implementing bankruptcy-prevention measures has been removed.

Part 7 was introduced by Federal Law No. 247-FZ, dated December 29, 2006.

Article 73. To fulfil its functions relating to banking regulation and banking supervision, the Bank of Russia shall conduct inspections of credit institutions (or their branches), give them instructions, which the credit institutions must obey, to eliminate violations discovered in their work and involving the breach of federal laws and Bank of Russia regulations issued in pursuance of these laws, and use sanctions against violators as stipulated by this Federal Law.

(part 1 in the wording of Federal Law No. 162-FZ, dated June 27, 2011).

Inspections may be conducted by the authorised representatives (employees) of the Bank of Russia in accordance with the procedure established by the Board of Directors or by audit firms at the instruction of the Board of Directors.

The authorised representatives (employees) of the Bank of Russia shall have the right to receive and examine accounting reports and other documents of credit institutions (or their branches) and, if necessary, make copies of the corresponding documents to attach them to inspection materials.

The procedure for conducting inspections of credit institutions (or their branches), including establishing the duties of credit institutions (or their branches) to assist inspections, shall be established by the Board of Directors.

In fulfilling its functions relating to banking regulation and banking supervision, the Bank of Russia shall not be entitled to conduct more than one inspection of a credit institution (or its branch) on the same subjects and the same accounting period of the activities of the credit institution (or its branch), except for those cases stipulated by this Article. An inspection shall cover only the five calendar years of the activities of a credit institution (or its branch) preceding the inspection year.

The Bank of Russia may conduct a repeat inspection of a credit institution (or its branch) on the same subjects and the same accounting period of the activities of the credit institution (or its branch) on the following grounds:

if such an inspection is conducted in connection with the reorganisation or liquidation of the credit institution;

by the reasoned decision of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may take such a decision to supervise a Bank of Russia regional branch that has conducted an inspection or at the request of the corresponding Bank of Russia structural unit for the purpose of assessing a credit institution's financial standing and the quality of assets and liabilities. For these purposes, the request by the Bank of Russia structural unit should indicate the signs of financial instability in a credit institution, if these signs have created a tangible threat to the interests of the credit institution's creditors (depositors). These signs should be detected and evaluated according to the methodologies established by Bank of Russia rules and regulations. A repeat inspection conducted by the reasoned decision of the Board of Directors shall be conducted with the participation of representatives of the Bank of Russia head office.

(in the wording of Federal Law No. 5-FZ, dated January 10, 2003)

Article 74. Should a credit institution violate federal laws or Bank of Russia normative acts or orders issued in pursuance of these laws or fail to provide information or provide incomplete or false information, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to require the credit institution to eliminate the violations discovered, charge a penalty of 0.1 per cent of the minimum amount of authorised capital or prohibit the credit institution from conducting some banking operations for up to six months.

Should a credit institution fail to fulfil the Bank of Russia order to eliminate the violations discovered in its work or should these violations or banking operations or transactions conducted by a credit institution pose a serious threat to the interests of its creditors (depositors), the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to:

1) charge the credit institution a fine of up to 1 per cent of its paid-up authorised capital but not more than 1 per cent of the minimum amount of authorised capital;

2) demand that the credit institution:

implement financial rehabilitation measures, including changing the structure of its assets;

replace the executives included in the list of positions given in Article 60 of this Federal Law;

conduct reorganisation;

3) change for a period of up to six months the compulsory standards set for the credit institution;

4) impose a ban on the implementation of some banking operations by the credit institution under its banking licence for a period of up to one year and prohibit it from opening branches for a period of up to one year;

5) appoint a provisional administration to manage the credit institution for a period of up to six months. The procedure for appointing a provisional administration and for its activities shall be established by federal laws and Bank of Russia normative acts issued pursuant to them;

6) ban the reorganisation of the credit institution if it may create grounds for taking anti-bankruptcy measures stipulated by the Federal Law on Insolvency (Bankruptcy) of Credit Institutions;

7) propose that the founders (members) of the credit institution who have the opportunity on their own or owing to an agreement between them or participation in the capital of one another or some other means of direct or indirect collaboration to influence decisions taken by management of the credit institution to take actions aimed at increasing the own funds (capital) of the credit institution to a level that would ensure its compliance with required ratios.

8) This point is null and void in accordance with Federal Law No. 174-FZ, dated October 13, 2008.

The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to revoke the banking licence of a credit institution on the grounds established by the Federal Law on Banks and Banking Activities. The procedure for revoking a banking licence shall be established by Bank of Russia normative acts.

The Bank of Russia may not prosecute a credit institution for violations listed in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, if five years have passed since these violations were committed. The Bank of Russia may not use sanctions stipulated in this Article for failure by a credit institution (its branch) to comply with Bank of Russia documents (acts) other than Bank of Russia normative acts or instructions. (part 4 in the wording of Federal Law No. 162-FZ, dated June 27, 2011).

The Bank of Russia may go to court to recover a fine from a credit institution or apply some other sanctions against it, stipulated by federal laws, no later than six months after any of the violations listed in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article was recorded.

Article 75. The Bank of Russia shall analyse the activities of credit institutions (banking groups) in order to detect situations endangering the legitimate interests of their depositors and creditors and stability of the Russian banking system.

Should such a situation arise, the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to take measures stipulated by Article 74 of this Federal Law and implement in compliance with the decision of the Board of Directors measures to financially rehabilitate credit institutions.

Article 76. The Bank of Russia shall be entitled to appoint its authorised representative to a credit institution in the cases when:

1) a credit institution has obtained a foreign currency credit (loan) from the state corporation, the Bank for Development and Foreign Economic Affairs (Vnesheconombank) (hereinafter Vnesheconombank), in accordance with Article 1 of Federal Law No. 173-FZ, dated October 13, 2008, “On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation” (hereinafter the Federal Law “On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation”);

2) a credit institution has obtained a subordinated credit (loan) from the Bank of Russia in accordance with Article 5 of the Federal Law “On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation;”

3) a credit institution has obtained a subordinated credit (loan) from Vnesheconombank in accordance with Article 6 of the Federal Law “On Additional Measures to Support the Financial System of the Russian Federation;”

4) federal budget funds have been deposited with a credit institution in accordance with Article 236 of the Budget Code of the Russian Federation;

5) a credit institution has obtained a loan from the Bank of Russia in accordance with point 1.1, Article 46 of this Federal Law for a term longer than one month;

6) the Bank of Russia and the Deposit Insurance Agency state corporation have taken measures in relation to a credit institution to prevent the bankruptcy of banks that are members of the deposit insurance system of the Russian Federation, in accordance with Federal Law No. 175-FZ, dated October 27, 2008, "On Additional Measures to Strengthen the Stability of the Banking System until December 31, 2011."

Authorised representatives of the Bank of Russia may be appointed to a credit institution from the day the credit institution receives funds (part of funds) of a corresponding credit (loan) or deposit, and may carry out their activities until the day the credit institution fully honours its obligations arising out of the receipt of the corresponding credit (loan) or deposit.

An authorised representative of the Bank of Russia may receive information from a credit institution on the size of remuneration paid by the credit institution to the one-man and collegiate executive bodies.

To fulfil his/her functions, an authorised representative of the Bank of Russia shall be entitled to:

1) participate, without voting rights, in sessions of a credit institution's management bodies, and also in sessions of the credit institution's bodies responsible for making decisions on the issues of crediting and the management of the credit institution's assets and liabilities;

2) receive from a credit institution information and documents relating to the credit institution's lending operations and operations to provide guarantees, manage assets and liabilities (claims and obligations).

A credit institution shall be obliged to submit to an authorised representative of the Bank of Russia, on his/her request, information and documents relating to the credit institution's lending operations, including information and documents on the realised and planned volumes of loans and their terms, and also on the operations to provide guarantees, manage assets and liabilities (claims and obligations), and shall not obstruct the activities of the Bank of Russia authorised representative.

During the term of office of the Bank of Russia authorised representative, a credit institution shall be obliged to submit to the Bank of Russia authorised representative, prior to the performance of transactions or operations, information on its intention to carry out the following types of transactions or operations:

1) those related to the transfer of real estate by the credit institution for lease or mortgage, as contribution to the authorised capital of third parties, any other disposal of such property, the replacement of real estate held by the credit institution as a mortgage by another pledge item or another type of security;

2) those related to the disposal of the credit institution's other property with a book value of more than 1 percent of the book value of the credit institution's assets, including the receipt and extension of credits and loans, the provision of guarantees and sureties, re-assignment of claims, assumption and forgiveness of debt, novation, compensation for release from an obligation, and also the creation of trust;

3) those related to the fulfillment of its obligations on credits (loans), deposits received, under repo agreements and other deals, if the book value of an obligation or a group of related obligations under such deals equals more than one percent of the book value of the credit institution's liabilities;

(point 3 in version of Federal Law No. 281-FZ, dated November 25, 2009)

4) those related to the transfer of funds to foreign banks, if the sum of transfer or a group of related transfers equals more than 1 percent of the book value of the credit institution's assets;

5) with interested or affiliated parties that are defined in accordance with federal law, or with persons in relation to whom the credit institution is an interested party in accordance with federal law, or with persons in relation to whom the credit institution can exert considerable influence directly or indirectly (through a third party) on decisions made by their management bodies or with persons that can exert considerable influence directly or indirectly (through a third party) on decisions made by the credit institution's management bodies, in the cases when such transactions or operations involve the sum equalling more than 0.5 percent of the book value of the credit institution's assets (liabilities).

The procedure for a credit institution to submit information and documents to an authorised representative of the Bank of Russia shall be established by the Bank of Russia.

Should a credit institution fail to fulfil the requirements of this Article, the credit institution may be subject to measures stipulated in Article 74 of this Federal Law and the credit institution's counterparties under agreements concluded with the credit institution and stipulated in part 1 of this Article may demand the early fulfilment of obligations by the credit institution under such agreements.

The authorised representatives of the Bank of Russia shall be employees of the Bank of Russia. The procedure for the appointment of Bank of Russia authorised representatives, the performance of their functions and the termination of their activities shall be established by the Bank of Russia upon approval from the Government of the Russian Federation.

(Article 76 in the wording of Federal Law No. 317-FZ, dated December 30, 2008).

Chapter XI. Bank of Russia Relations with Credit Institutions

Article 77. The Bank of Russia shall co-operate with credit institutions and their associations and unions, hold consultations with them before taking the most important decisions relating to legislation, give the necessary explanations and consider proposals on issues relating to banking regulation.

The Bank of Russia must respond in writing to a credit institution on issues within its competence no later than a month from the day on which it received a written request from the credit institution. The Bank of Russia may extend the term of considering a request, if necessary, but for not more than one month.

Article 78. For the purpose of maintaining co-operation with credit institutions, the Bank of Russia shall have the right to form with the participation of representatives of credit institutions volunteer committees and working groups to study specific issues relating to banking.

Article 79. The Bank of Russia shall not be liable for the obligations of credit institutions, except for the cases when the Bank of Russia assumes such obligations, while credit institutions shall not be liable for the obligations of the Bank of Russia, except for the cases when credit institutions assume such obligations.

Chapter XII. The Management of Non-Cash Settlements

Article 80. The Bank of Russia shall be a body co-ordinating, regulating and licensing settlement systems, including clearing systems, in the Russian Federation.

The Bank of Russia shall set non-cash settlement rules, forms, terms and standards.

The overall term of payments in non-cash settlements shall not exceed two operation days if the payment is effected within a constituent entity of the Russian Federation and five operation days if the payment is effected within the Russian Federation as a whole.

Article 81. The Bank of Russia shall effect interbank non-cash settlements through its institutions.

Article 82. Foreign currency may only be used as payment for goods (work and services) in non-cash settlements in the cases stipulated by federal laws.

In accordance with points 7 and 8, Article 11 of Federal Law No. 162-FZ, dated June 27, 2011, which comes into force twelve months after it is officially published (Rossiiskaya Gazeta, No. 139, June 30, 2011), Chapter XII shall be deemed null and void, while Chapter XII.1 will be added to the document to read as follows:

“Chapter XII.1. ENSURING STABILITY AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE NATIONAL PAYMENT SYSTEM

Article 82.1. The Bank of Russia shall ensure stability of and develop the national payment system in compliance with the Federal Law on the National Payment System.

The areas for the development of the national payment system shall be defined by the Bank of Russia’s strategy for the national payment system development.

Article 82.2. The Bank of Russia shall organise and ensure the effective and uninterrupted functioning of the Bank of Russia payment system and shall exercise oversight function over it.

Article 82.3. The Bank of Russia shall set the rules of cash settlements, including limits on cash settlements between legal entities, and also settlements with the participation of citizens related to their entrepreneurial activities.

The Bank of Russia shall set the rules, forms and standards of non-cash settlements.”

Chapter XIII. Bank of Russia Organisational Principles

Article 83. The Bank of Russia shall be an integral centralised system with a vertical structure of management.

The Bank of Russia system shall comprise the central office, regional branches, cash settlement centres, computer centres, field institutions, training centres and other organisations, including security divisions and the Russian collection service, which are necessary for the Bank of Russia to conduct its activities.

The national banks of the constituent republics of the Russian Federation shall be the regional branches of the Bank of Russia.

Article 84. The regional branches of the Bank of Russia shall not be legal entities and they shall have no right to issue normative acts or grant bank guarantees, warranties, bills and other obligations without the permission of the Board of Directors.

The tasks and functions of the Bank of Russia regional branches shall be established by the Provision on the Bank of Russia Regional Branches, approved by the Board of Directors.

Article 85. By the decision of the Board of Directors, regional branches of the Bank of Russia may be established in regions comprising several constituent entities of the Russian Federation.

Article 86. Field institutions of the Bank of Russia shall conduct banking operations in compliance with this Federal Law, other federal laws and Bank of Russia normative acts.

Field institutions of the Bank of Russia shall be military institutions, guided in their activities by army manuals and the Provision on the Bank of Russia Field Institutions, approved jointly by the Bank of Russia and the Ministry of Defence of the Russian Federation.

Bank of Russia field institutions are designed to provide banking services to military units, institutions and organisations of the Ministry of Defence of the Russian Federation and other government bodies and legal entities responsible for national security and also private individuals living in the territories serviced by Bank of Russia field institutions in the cases when it is impossible to establish and put into operation Bank of Russia regional branches.

Article 87. The Bank of Russia may only be liquidated by the adoption of a corresponding federal law amending the Constitution of the Russian Federation.

Chapter XIV. Bank of Russia Employees

Article 88. The conditions of the employment, dismissal and remuneration, official duties and rights and the system of disciplinary actions with regard to Bank of Russia employees shall be established by the Board of Directors in compliance with federal laws.

Article 89. The Board of Directors shall establish a pension fund for the provision of additional pension services to Bank of Russia employees and organise life and medical insurance for Bank of Russia employees.

Article 90. Bank of Russia employees holding positions included in a list approved by the Board of Directors shall not be allowed:

- 1) to hold more than one job or work under a contract agreement (except for teaching, research and creative work);
- 2) to hold jobs in credit and other institutions;
- 3) to acquire securities, shares (stakes in the authorised capital of organisations), which may yield income, in the cases when this may result in a conflict of interests, except for cases established by federal law;
- 4) be an attorney or a representative of third parties in the Bank of Russia, unless otherwise stipulated in this Federal Law and other federal laws;
- 5) receive, in connection with the performance of their functions, remunerations (loans, cash or other remuneration, services, payments for entertainment, leisure, transport expenses) not stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation, except for the cases stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation. Gifts received by Bank of Russia employees in connection with protocol events, business trips and other official events shall be recognised as federal property and transferred by Bank of Russia employees under a handover certificate to the Bank of Russia, except for the cases stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation. A Bank of Russia employee who has handed over a gift received in connection with a protocol event, a business trip or other official event, may buy it out in accordance with the procedure established by legal acts of the Russian Federation;

6) travel abroad, in connection with the performance of their functions, using the funds of private individuals and legal entities, except for business trips made in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation, international treaties of the Russian Federation, accords reached by the federal government bodies on a reciprocal basis with foreign government bodies and international and foreign organisations, and interbank agreements.

In the cases when the possession of income-yielding securities, shares (stakes in the authorised capital of organisations) may result in a conflict of interests, an employee of the Bank of Russia must transfer the said securities, shares (stakes in the authorised capital of organisations) held by him/her, for trust management in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

Employees who had held positions included in a list approved by the Board of Directors shall not be allowed, after their dismissal from the Bank of Russia:

1) to hold, during two years in credit institutions, the positions of executives whose list is given in Article 60 of this Federal Law, if certain functions of supervision or control over these credit institutions were included in their direct official duties, without the consent of the Board of Directors, which shall be given in accordance with the procedure established by the Board of Directors;

2) to disclose or use in the interests of organisations or private individuals information referred in accordance with federal law to information of restricted access, or insider information that has become known to them in connection with the performance of their functions.

Responsibility for failure to comply with the bans stipulated by this Article shall be established by this Federal Law and other federal laws.

(Article 90 in the wording of Federal Law No. 274-FZ, dated December 25, 2008)

Article 91. Bank of Russia employees holding positions included in a list approved by the Board of Directors may take out loans for personal needs in the Bank of Russia only.

Article 92. Bank of Russia employees shall have no right to disclose internal information about the activities of the Bank of Russia without the permission of the Board of Directors.

Chapter XV. Bank of Russia Audit

Article 93. The National Banking Board shall make a decision before the end of the reporting year on an audit of the annual financial statements of the Bank of Russia and select an audit firm with a licence to conduct audits in the Russian Federation.

The National Banking Board shall be entitled to give recommendations to the auditor of the Bank of Russia on matters concerning the audit of the annual financial statements of the Bank of Russia, while the auditor of the Bank of Russia must ensure the fulfilment of these recommendations.

Article 94. The Bank of Russia shall be obliged in compliance with an agreement on the provision of audit services, concluded with the audit firm, to present to it the statements and information necessary for auditing the Bank of Russia.

The agreement on the provision of audit services shall contain a list of data that must be passed to the audit firm and provide for the responsibility of the audit firm for passing the information it has received to a third party.

The Bank of Russia shall pay the audit firm for the services it has provided under the agreement on the provision of audit services out of its own funds.

Article 95. The internal audit of the Bank of Russia shall be conducted by the Bank of Russia chief auditor's service, which shall be directly accountable to the Bank of Russia Chairman.

Chapter XVI. Final Provisions

Article 96. The Russian Federation President, the Russian Federation Government and the Bank of Russia shall bring their normative legislation into conformity with this Federal Law.

Article 97. This Federal Law shall come into force as of the day of its official publication, except Article 10, paragraph 2 of Article 58 and other provisions of this Article.

Article 10 of this Federal Law shall come into force as of January 1, 2003. Before that Article comes into force, the authorised capital of the Bank of Russia shall be 3 million rubles.
